Why this lineup

vs Buncha Dudes

STRATEGY

Objective is runs tonight, so the four hitters who have actually been producing this fall get the heart: Vahey hits 4th off a home run in four straight games, with Owens (4 HR in his last three) at 3 and Casey Klimek at 5. The two calls that shaped the card are Daniel Jacob batting 2nd on form against a 1.259 career OPS — he has walked in half his plate appearances this fall and is the surest baserunner in front of the heart — and Hunter Johnson held at 7 despite the roster's best career power line, because 8 PA and no game since 9/8 is not "producing right now." Casey Klimek moves down from leadoff to the 5-hole since he has an extra-base hit in every Fall game; Millen sits 6th per his middle-of-the-order instruction and Perry 11th per his bottom-of-the-order instruction.
